

FOUR-BALL HANDICAP STABLEFORD COMPETITION

CONDITIONS OF COMPETITION

The following conditions for this competition must be read in conjunction with:

- i. CAGU's "General Conditions"
- ii. CAGU's "Hard Card" (Standard Local Rules, Conditions of Competition, Regulations and Safety Advice)

Both these documents are published on and downloadable from the website (www.cagu.co.uk). Players should download and carry in their golf bags a copy of the Hard Card.

When entering a competition, players should, in particular, be aware of the General Conditions covering eligibility, entries, withdrawals and registration.

Note: After entries close, the Competition Organiser will send by e-mail (or, by exception, post) to each pair's nominated contact and to those officiating a "Players' Information" sheet and a drawsheet. The draw will also be posted on the website. Players Information will include such matters as contact details of the Competition Organiser and the Club, provision for practice rounds (if applicable) and catering arrangements at the venue.

1. The Competition

- a. Format. The Competition shall be played by 36 holes of four-ball handicap stableford. Each player shall play off three-quarters of his current playing handicap.
- b. The maximum field is 40 pairs. If the number of entries exceeds 40, General Condition 4b applies (entries accepted in order of their receipt).
- c. The winners shall be the pair returning the best stableford score over 36 holes. In the event of a tie, General Condition 10b (Countback) will apply.
- d. All other ties will likewise be decided according to General Condition 10b (Countback).
- e. Player eligibility/qualification: See General Condition 3. In addition, at date of entry, entrants must have a handicap not exceeding 18.4.

2. Winners and Prizes

- a. The winners shall receive winners' prizes.
- b. The runners up shall also receive prizes.
- c. Further prizes will normally be awarded, depending on the number of entries.
- D Where prizes are in the form of vouchers, their value shall be decided by the Competition Committee.
